The Via de Cristo is an intense three-day religious experience which utilizes group techniques to bring the candidate into renewed fellowship with fellow Christians, the Church, and Christ. It can be physically and emotionally tiring. If you are experiencing a physical infirmity or an emotional problem for which you are receiving treatment the Via de Cristo may not be for you. Please consider carefully before submitting this application. Discuss this with your spouse and sponsor. If you find you cannot attend the weekend for which you have made application, please advise your sponsor as soon as possible.
